Course of Study

Bonjour! You have all made the brave decision to learn a new language this year---French! Deciding to learn a new language is fun and exciting. Not only do you learn to communicate in a different way, but you also learn interesting things about other cultures. Learning a foreign language can be a bit intimidating, but don't worry. Making mistakes is a part of the learning process; don't be self-conscious, just learn from your mistakes and have fun! In this class, you will learn vocabulary, conversational expressions, speaking, listening, reading, and writing in French; class participation is very important! We will also explore various aspects of culture in France and other French speaking countries. Please review material regularly as you will have class every other day.
